

"There is no greater discovery than the discovery of self. Within this realization lies the freedom from the bonds of birth and death. For one discovers that all along they have been playing within this playground of physicality but their true home, and that which they truly are, is spirit unborn, undying. Truly this is the reason we are here within this dimensional classroom."

“A Tool for Self Healing and Expansion”

Change the Present by Integrating the Past

For over 30 years, Robin Miller has been helping people discover their past lives through guided, spiritual regressive hypnosis.

Robin is aware of several past lives where he performed this work in Tibet, Atlantis and Lemuria. He has also been professionally trained, and guides the individual or group into an altered state of consciousness. Here they re-experience key moments in significant lifetimes. These key experiences are most often characterized by deep emotional joy or trauma and are usually the origin of present fears, belief patterns, and relationship issues.

The significance of having a past life regression is first and foremost to discover there is no death. Then with this realization, there are many aspects of our present day lives which need to be healed and addressed.

These problem areas present themselves in various forms, but the bottom line is to make ones life work, to create joy in relationships, peace within our hearts and minds, expansion through understanding that we indeed are forever beings! This is the goal of the past life experience.

Within this process, Robin himself is guided and aided by several spirit helpers and works directly with each individual's higher self and spirit guides to achieve the greatest possible openings within the consciousness of that individual.

Here are some comments from past clients ...

“It was the most incredible experience I ever had! I was there, experiencing, crying, feeling all the emotions of that lifetime. I now understand so much about why I chose the relationships I did in my life, why I've been so afraid of commitment!”

– Johns, Los Angeles, CA

“All of the sudden I was in this past life and I was a man... big, with long black hair, and a brute. I was mean to people! I couldn't believe it! My mother then was cold and heartless and could care less about me it seemed. My mother then was my ex-wife in this life. It all makes sense but it was a mind blower!”

– Bill D., Milwaukee, WI

“Robin's voice, as he was guiding me under, was so soothing – almost musical. I just went right into that past life and experienced a great many things that gave me answers to a lot of questions about why I do the things I do and think the thoughts I think in this life! It was truly awesome!”

– Shirley A., New York, NY.

Each session is approximately 2 hours long. Cost is $225.
